

THE SCARY MOVIE

It was Saturday morning and Ellie [tramp/ steam/ wanted] to go see a movie. She [deal/ casts/ asked] her father if he would take [get/ her/ hot] downtown. "Sure," said Dad. "I have [to/ at/ up] go in to work anyway. It will [be/ win/ of] right on my way."

Ellie called [sip/ her/ yes] friends Beth, Katie, and Laura to [fly/ pan/ see] whether they could go. They said [top/ yes/ hot]. They went to Ellie's house. There [will/ help/ they] all got into Dad's car. Then [see/ more/ Dad] drove to the movies.

There were [fill/ two/ bus] movies playing. One movie was about [in/ a/ of] boy and a dog. The ticket [lady/ beds/ able] said it was funny. The other [movie/ boast/ wave] was about a mummy. It looked [steam/ scary/ house]. The name of it was "The Mummy Walks Again!" [Hole/ There/ Steal] was a picture of the mummy [on/ ape/ it] the wall. He looked creepy. The [ripe/ girls/ step] asked the ticket lady about the [movie/ beat/ coil]. She said she had heard people scream [toe/ when/ hope] they saw the mummy.

The girls [picked/ beats/ faster] the scary movie. They each paid [sad/ for/ jar] a ticket. Then they walked over [to/ but/ is] the candy counter. Beth got a [tot/ wet/ tub] of popcorn. She asked the man [to/ at/ is] put extra butter on it. Ellie [and/ them/ are] Katie bought candy bars. Laura got [of/ a/ it] box of nuts with chocolate on [sit/ them/ pale]. All of the girls got sodas [the/ate/ and napkins, too. Then they went inside [fig/ the/ can] movie. The lights went dark and the [table/ movie/ camp] came on. Even the music was [form/ label/ scary]! The mummy lived in a tomb. [To/ He/ At] had been dead for many years. [Is/ He/ Of] had been wrapped with cloth. Then he [was/ hop/ of] alive again. He chased people [we/ in/ met] the town. He caught people and [pillow/ trees/ turned] them into mummies, too!

2.7

The girls screamed [pick/ when/ bake] the mummy chased people. Beth and Ellie [put/ sip/ rat] their hands over their eyes. Laura [frill/ needed/ biked] to go to the bathroom but [limp/ did/ fat] not. She was afraid that a mummy [would/ table/ ginger] be in there.

After the movie, [the/ sand/ are] girls were glad to be in [van/ jet/ the] light again. They told Dad all [about/ would/ limp] the movie on the way home.

"[Why/ Add/ It] seems like you had fun," said [see/ make/ Dad]. "But I hope you do not [seal/ have/ jump] bad dreams." The girls dressed up [like/ nail/ beet] mummies and played all afternoon.